'A wall to remember'

As you look around this wall, you will find a collection of moments and people who have inspired us, items that have defined the culinary industry for years and generations. Some of the most loved dishes around the world today, have been created by some very ordinary men and women in their very ordinary kitchens. People who have raised the bar and left legacies for the future to follow.

And that is the Dream!

Some years from now when another believer rides the tide and lands in this very place, we hope that we are remembered as a part of that list of creators.

We hope our story is remembered and cherished with the same love as we have lived.

From the narrow streets of Delhi to a modern day setting of a restaurant in the heart of Manchester.

It's a dream that is larger than life.

We hope to be able to bring to you an experience that has our heart and soul, a journey that is remembered for making the guests proud.

To the food and legacy.
Let the feast begin!

With humility & gratitude
We take a bow.
